

BRAINERD IS CONFIDENT ON EVE OF WAR FUND DRIVE

WARD CAPTAINS AND LIEUTENANTS MEET

Gathering at Chamber of Commerce Monday Evening for Final Instructions in the Canvass

Pastors of Churches Sunday Appealed to People. Boy Scouts and 4 Minute Men Get Busy

On the eve of the big Y. M. C. A. War Fund drive which is expected to list Brainerd among the cities and communities responding nobly to the call of our boys at the front, the situation seems very satisfactory, with everything to indicate a prompt and liberal response on the part of the public. Brainerd must raise $8,000 for this splendid work; will she do it? The answer, judging from the keen interest indicated in all walks of life from the wealthiest to the most humble home, is, BRAINERD WILL.

This means something more than small donations of $1.00 for with approximately 1800 voters and deducting from this number those who will naturally give through another and also worthy avenue for the relief of the soldiers, an average of $5.00 the person must be attained. It means that those who are able must dig down deep in their pockets to make up the deficit anticipated in other quarters; it means liberality on the part of every person in the city and when the solicitors call for your donation, please bear this in mind.

Meeting Tonight
The ward captains and lieutenants will meet at the Chamber of Commerce this evening for final instructions and assignments. All citizens have been listed by wards and streets and each lieutenant will be assigned one or more streets to canvass.

Special arrangements are being made to canvass, under official direction, the employees as a whole of the railroad shops, foundry, paper mill and other fields of endeavor of the man who toils. These men are quick to respond to a call which means the comfort and encouragement of the men at the front; a substantial response is certain from them in this great movement.

A Great Appeal
Pastors of the different churches of the city devoted a portion of their sermons Sunday to an explanation of the Y. M. C. A. War Fund plan and what it means to our boys who must meet suffering and hardships, pernicious influences and temptations, heart-aches and discouragements in the great conflict for humanity now on across the water.

Boy Scouts Busy
The Boy Scouts, little men with warm, sympathizing hearts are delivering the War Fund appeal to every home in the city. At the theatres this evening, 4-Minute Men speakers will give the public first hand information direct from the government as to just what this means and the vital importance of putting it over NOW. Brainerd is alert and is deeply, warmly, sympathetically interested; Brainerd hearts are in a receptive mood tonight on the eve of this practical movement for all that goes to mean clean manhood and a blow at the devil's right hand tools in the shape of temptations, daunted in the very face of the young manhood of the United States, fighting on a soil wet with the blood of heroic sacrifices.

General Chairman Zapffe expressed himself as well satisfied with the outlook today and forecasts one of the most liberal and general responses to an appeal for war relief in the history of a city already recognized as among the very first to give and to do in support of the nation.

The Appeal for the Y. M. C. A. War Fund

If our boys, tired, cold and mud-stained, could only knock at your door tonight, how wonderfully you would minister to them. With what eagerness you would comfort and feed them. You would do this in YOUR homes.

Let us do this for you in the camps and at the front—where YOU can not go. Help them by heroic giving. Some are giving thousands, thousands are giving some. All should have a share.

OUR BOYS will give their LIVES if necessary to make America safe for you. What will YOU sacrifice to give them a touch of home, love and cheer, TO HELP KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING IN THEIR HEARTS, to come home to us healthy physically and morally?

CHALLENGE TO ENEMY FLEET

Royal Navy Still Waiting for Battle, Admiralty Says.

London, Nov. 12.—The British admiralty replying to the German secretary of the navy's criticism of the recent speech in the house of commons by Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the admiralty, said:

"The world knows from the Cattergat events that the royal navy is waiting for the high sea fleet, which still continues to decline battle. No German war vessel larger than a destroyer has shown itself to us 150 miles west of Heligoland from August, 1916, to September (October?), 1917, when two light cruisers attacked a Scandinavian convoy."

SOCIALISTS FIGHT GOMPERS

Pacifist Opposition Expected at A. F. of L. Election.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Around the candidacy of President Samuel Gompers for re-election at next week's American Federation of Labor convention in Buffalo will take place the real pacifist fight in that organization's history. The usual socialistic opposition to Gompers' administration will this time be based on his war advocacy. Plans for the fight on Gompers were laid by the pacifist labor element early this year.

Gompers and his cabinet are prepared for the battle. Veteran of many socialist attacks, Gompers is confident he will defeat them again.

Philipp Opposes Election.
Madison, Wis., Nov. 12.—A commit tee from the Wisconsin Loyalty Legion, favoring a special election to fill the place of the late United States Senator Paul O. Husting, failed to impress its views on Governor E. L. Philipp. The governor adheres to his decision to ask power of appointment from a special session of the legislature. The committee consisted of Judson C. Rosbush, president of the Loyalty Legion; W. S. Goodland, secretary, and Richard Lloyd Jones.

Great Fire Loss.
The annual loss by fire in New York city is said to amount to $6,000,000.

America's Industrial Generals Now Aiding the Army in France

(By United Press)
American Field Headquarters in France, Nov. 12.—America's industrial generals are now aiding the army of France, which is being moulded into a separate and distinct force in a new transportation department created by Gen. Pershing.

Kerensky Keeps His Own Counsel Regarding Move

(By United Press)
Petrograd, Nov. 12.—No statement has been issued which undoubtedly means that Premier Kerensky wishes to withhold the troop movements from the Bolsheviks with whom they are probably now fighting.

Fresh Evidence That Bolshevik Revolt Rapidly Collapsing

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 12.—Fresh evidence that the Bolshevik revolt in Russia is collapsing reaches the state department. Official messages relayed through Persia say that Premier Kerensky has reached army headquarters and that the uprising would apparently be short lived.

10,000 Italian Troops Surrender Retreat Barred

(By United Press)
Berlin, Nov. 12.—10,000 Italian soldiers surrendered to the German-Austrian advance in the upper Piave valley, is an official report. The troops found their retreat barred near Longue.

Enemy Reaches Feltre

Berlin, Nov. 12.—The German-Austrian troops have reached Feltre on the left wing of the Italian positions along the Piave, is an official report.

J. P. TUMULTY

Wilson's secretary may attend Twin Cities loyalty meeting.

J. P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, states that he has not definitely decided whether he can go to Minneapolis and St. Paul November 16 and 17. "I still have it under consideration," said Tumulty, "but am not certain whether I can come or not. Naturally I should like very much to do so."

An Ironing Out of Russian Situation Street Fighting

(By United Press)
London, Nov. 12.—England's optimism of an ironing out of the Russian situation is centered on important events hinted at in Moscow which was recently wrested from the Bolsheviks by provisionals. That Gen. Korniloff will form a stable government is the hope. Moscow dispatches say there is considerable street fighting but that the provisional troops are doing well.

Mutual Artillery Fire

(By United Press)
London, Nov. 12.—Gen. Haig's report says nothing but the usual mutual artillerying between forces.

Wilson Speaks to Federated Labor Gompers in Fight

(By United Press)
Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Asking that he be regarded as a fellow citizen speaking words of counsel and not as chief executive of the United States on a new, high platform, President Wilson asked the ranks of labor to join with the other people of America. "We have come to the deciding hour between the old principle of rule and the new principle of freedom," said the president in addressing the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

President Gompers is making a fight for reelection on a war platform. Wild charges are being made that there are German agents among the delegates and that American Bolsheviks are at work. "Germany's men of science have made her industries the most competent in the world, she had access to all the markets of the world and every man who traded feared Germany because of her active and almost irresistible competition. She was not content with success by superior achievement but wanted success by authority."

Two Deaths From Pneumonia and Fractured Skull

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 12.—Millions of dollars worth of food stuffs stored by neutrals and suspected German agents in the vicinity will be seized unless voluntarily given up it is officially stated by the food administration.

Crow Wing county and the city of Brainerd will be well represented at the Northwest Loyalty meetings to be held in St. Paul Friday, November 16 and Minneapolis on Saturday, Nov. 17. Mayor Beise today listed a number of prominent local people who will attend the meetings, the following having indicated their intentions of going:

Mayor Beise, R. R. Wise, George D. LaBar, Henry I. Cohen, Giles P. O'Brien, Fred Parker, W. H. Gemmell, A. J. Halstead, W. C. Cobb, Dr. J. A. Thabes and son John Thabes, Jr., from this city. Delegates from Crosby, Ironton, Deerwood and other towns of the range have been notified of their appointments. A. J. Hayes of Crosby stated to Secretary Lincoln of the Chamber of Commerce over the phone today that he would enlist as many as possible from the range towns to attend the big meetings.

The Brainerd party will go down Friday and attend the meeting in St. Paul, remain over to take in the football game between Chicago and Minnesota on Saturday and attend the evening meetings in that city. Large delegations from the northwest are expected to attend the meetings and prominent speakers from Washington have been secured.

Credentials for the delegation are being issued today and may be had by calling at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. An invitation to attend has been received by the Chamber of Commerce from the St. Paul association and the Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association. President Henry I. Cohen will represent the Chamber at the meetings.

U. S. SUSPENDS RELATIONS

To Await Clearing of Slav Situation—Envoy Reports.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The first reports from American Ambassador David R. Francis on the upheaval in Russia have arrived but added nothing to the news dispatches already received.

The ambassador's dispatches, filed on Nov. 7 and 8, said that up to that time all the ministers of the provisional government except Kerensky had been arrested.

American representatives of the Red Cross in Petrograd were all safe and no mention was made of any harm befalling any other Americans.

Until the situation has been more clearly defined there will continue a practical suspension of official relations with Russia.

German Peace Talk Ends.
Copenhagen, Nov. 12.—The developments in Russia and Italy have put peace talk in the background in Germany. Peace questions are not mentioned by any representatives of the four parties composing the Reichstag majority, whose utterances in regard to the settlement of the chancellorship crisis are cited by Berlin correspondents of Danish newspapers.

BIG WAR UNDERTAKING TO RUSH SHIP BUILDING

Crowder Explains Draft Following Wilson's Foreword.

Plan of Such Significance As To Compel Assistance of Every American, is Word.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Provost Marshal General Crowder has issued the following statement, supplementing the president's call to the nation.

"The questionnaire, which is the basis of the new system, is a collection of questions bringing out the essential facts upon which all classifications are made. It is the only printed form which any registrant needs to use, either in making claims or filing proof. At first sight, it may seem a little formidable, but a reading of the questions shows that they are simple enough for any person who can read and write understanding to answer.

"The president's message lines up the whole legal profession of the United States as assistants of the selective service system and as impartial advisors to registrants in filling out their questionnaires. Under the new regulations a place is to be provided convenient to every local board where registrants may go for free advice and assistance in making out this document. The county judge or other judicial officer of similar court is placed at the head of a committee of lawyers in each vicinity and this committee is charged with the duty of seeing that there are always plenty of lawyers and other volunteers present to help registrants in filling out the questionnaire.

"Questionnaires are to be mailed by the local board to 5 per cent of the registrants each day. The principal work of the legal advisory board will thus be over in 20 days, by which time all the questionnaires would be returned to the boards. Every man has seven days in which to return his questionnaire fully made out. The process of classification will begin about December 15. Eight days later the boards will begin the great process of classification which becomes, in the words of the president, 'a national war undertaking of such significance as to challenge the attention and compel the assistance of every American.'

ITALIANS STOP TEUTON HOST

Retake Lost Ground Following Stiffening of Line.

Rome, Nov. 12.—On the Italian front the Italian line in the north has stiffened under the reinforcements it has received from the British and French. Even the German official communication does not mention any further retirement by the Italians, but on the contrary admits that east Asiago, where the Austro-Germans made gains last week, the Italians attacked the invaders and recaptured lost positions. The Italians took about 100 prisoners. In the Sugana valley an enemy advance guard was captured.

CHINA REPORTED RESENTFUL

Limits Recognition of Treaty Between Japan and America.

Tokio, Nov. 12.—China has formally announced that she will limit her recognition of the special position which territorial propinquity creates according to the Japanese-American "understanding" to interests already established in treaties. The Chinese foreign office announcement to this effect has been received here.

The statement also declared that China will not be bound by notes exchanged between other countries.

Formal announcement to this effect is the official indication of dissatisfaction in China with the recent understanding reached between the United States and Japan. China is resentful because she was not consulted in the matter.

Minneapolis Aviator Meets Death.

Minneapolis, Nov. 12.—Walter A. Jones is the fourth Minneapolis man to give his life in war service. He was instantly killed at Hicks Field, Fort Worth, Texas, when an airplane he was driving fell 800 feet. Either through loss of control of the machine, or through some mechanical trouble, the plane did a spinning nose dive, killing Jones, but only slightly injuring a passenger he had with him. Mr. Jones was 21 years old and for the last two years had been a student at the University of Minnesota.

Big Business Put In Charge With Object of Rushing Work With All Haste.

Washington, Nov. 12.—A practical reorganization of the emergency fleet corporation is announced because the building of ships for the United States emergency fleet has not produced vessels speedily enough.

Big business men have been put in charge, and from now on the entire work will be conducted as any one of America's great corporations would be—by big organizers. The following men have been named to push the work with all haste:

Charles Piez of Chicago, president of the Link Belt company, and with the reputation of being one of the biggest business organizers in the country, named as vice president of the emergency fleet corporation.

James Heyworth of Chicago, contractor.

A. J. Mason of Chicago, engineer.

Charles Day of Philadelphia, contractor.

Frank Kirby of New York, architect.

John Burton Payne of Chicago, lawyer.

To Mr. Piez will be given the job of turning out America's ships with speed. He will have to organize his own program and he will be given full sway.

Rear Admiral Washington L. Capps, appointed by President Wilson as general manager of the corporation, succeeding Major General George W. Goethals, will continue in that position, but much of the work he has done heretofore will be taken over by Mr. Piez.

MUNITIONS PLANT BURNED

Gotham Factory Destroyed With Loss of $2,000,000.

New York, Nov. 12.—New York City's waterfront was the scene of another disastrous fire when the factory of the Washburn Wire company, which was working on large war orders for the government, was destroyed, with an estimated loss of $2,000,000.

The patrolman who discovered the conflagration declared he found three separate fires in the factory. An investigation revealed that a score of Germans and an equal number of Austrians, only one of whom possessed a zone permit, were included in the force of 1,000 employees of the factory.

The federal authorities have been notified of the failure of the company to obtain zone permits for its alien enemy employees. Five firemen were injured by falling walls and a water tower was demolished under an avalanche of bricks.

I. W. W. Threaten Russ Methods.

Omaha, Nov. 12.—A general convention of the Industrial Workers of the World has been called to meet in Omaha, according to circulars distributed here. Local leaders of the I. W. W. claim that between 4,000 and 5,000 members of the organization will attend. The circular, dated November 5, says: "We must prepare to use methods not unlike those used by Russian labor, for they are surely being forced upon us. If not allowed to do business openly we will do it otherwise, for we will never lay down."

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel, like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young — to do this you must watch your liver and bowels — there's no need of having a sallow complexion — dark rings under your eyes — pimples — a bilious look in your face — dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

WOMAN'S REALM

MRS. H. J. ERNSTER DEERWOOD REPORT

Records Progress of Patriotism and Food Conservation, Activities Carried On

WORK OF THE CIVIC LEAGUE

Liberty Breads are Being Used Extensively, Aid Societies Dispense With Refreshments

Mrs. L. P. Hall is receiving monthly reports from the different towns and townships in Crow Wing county. The following interesting report came from Deerwood:

Deerwood, Minnesota.

Oct. 17, 1917.

My dear Mrs. Hall, county chairman of Safety Commission, Woman's Auxiliary:

I am delighted to report the progress of patriotism and food conservation in our village.

When war was declared a number of our boys enlisted. This helped to arouse the patriotism of some who were heretofore indifferent to government affairs. The Civic League became interested in Red Cross and conservation, through the Federation of Clubs, they purchased supplies and began their sewing before a chapter was organized in our country.

From this committee grew the Red Cross with a membership of one hundred and eleven members. A few of whom sew each Tuesday and Friday. A great number of garments have been sent in and another box is being filled at present. A goodly number are knitting, who find some cares preventing them from attending these meetings. Patriotic meetings have been held and sufficient money raised for purchasing materials and comforts for the boys. The materials are purchased from our own merchants.

Liberty bonds are being sold daily, our men are doing their share and Deerwood will buy her allotment. The Civic League is buying a Liberty bond.

The Liberty breads are being used extensively and meatless days are being observed by a great number. Teas and afternoon parties are few, and cakes and pastries are practically unheard of. The aid societies have either dispensed with refreshments or serve something very simple.

Every woman who signed the Hoover Pledge is living up to that pledge to the best of her ability. Women who never canned before, have canned vegetables and fruits the entire season.

Altogether, the citizens of Deerwood are doing their share, and patriotism and loyalty are more evident each day.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. H. J. ERNSTER.

CONCORDIA YOUNG PEOPLE

Little Ones and Old Ones

James Edwards, 208 Harriett St., Montgomery, Ala., writes: "My whole family is using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound now—the little ones and the old ones. It has cured our coughs and broken our colds." Foley's Honey and Tar clears stopped air passages, heals raw inflamed membranes, removes phlegm and eases sore chest. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv.

PANORAMA OF PALM BEACH

Local Talent at Brainerd Opera House Will Have Own Orchestra.

Mrs. Walter Wieland Director

The Panorama of Palm Beach, which is to be presented at the Brainerd opera house November 29th and 30th, by local talent, will have its own orchestra directed by Mrs. Walter Wieland. The orchestra is a very important feature of a light opera such as the Panorama of Palm Beach and it is fortunate that such a talented and capable director as Mrs. Wieland has been secured.

Mrs. Clyde Parker, under whose supervision the play is to be given, reports that rehearsals have been very satisfactory and there is much enthusiasm on the part of all.

Work Room Changed

The work room of surgical dressings has been changed from library hall to a room in the Whitfield school building. This room will be open for workers all day Tuesdays and Fridays and Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week.

The demand and call for surgical dressings is greater than ever before and it is hoped that the classes which have grown in library hall will expand to much larger sizes in the well heated and commodious rooms now to be used for the work.

Birthday Dinner

Saturday at her residence, 302 Juniper street, Mrs. E. P. Slipp entertained at the noon hour, in honor of Mr. Slipp's birthday. Miss McCague presented the birthday cake and W. A. M. Johnstone made fitting remarks as to the nature of such an occasion, and expressed the twofold desire that Mr. Slipp might be permitted to enjoy many such anniversaries, and that he, Mr. Johnstone, might also be permitted to participate in the celebration thereof. Covers were laid for eight.

Methodist Ladies Aid

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will be entertained on Thursday afternoon of this week by Mrs. A. J. Loom and Mrs. F. W. Hill in the social rooms of the church. The Misses Keller and Paul Lockwood will furnish instrumental music during luncheon. Business meeting at 3 o'clock. Visitors are cordially welcome.

For Miss McCague

A very delightful day was spent by friends of Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone who at her summer cottage, Gull lake, last week, gave a dinner party. Miss McCague being the honor guest. Covers were laid for twelve.

On Friday evening Miss Alice Johnstone entertained for Miss McCague at a dinner, covers being laid for 15.

Catholic Foresters

Members of the W. C. O. F. are requested to attend the annual mass for deceased members, Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock.

Community Bible Class

The South Side Community Bible class will meet this evening at 7:45 o'clock with Mrs. Charles Risk, 1915 South Sixth street. The Book of Acts, third chapter, is the lesson study.

The Rebekah Club

The Rebekah club will meet with Mrs. Frank Russell, 1212 South 7th street, on Tuesday afternoon. All Rebekahs are welcome.

Cut This Out—It is Worth Money.

Don't Miss This—Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills and Foley Cathartic Tablets. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv.

Juvenile Entertainers Here Tuesday & Wednesday

FOR RECRUITING SERVICE

Juvenile Entertainers of Winnipeg to Give Entertainments in Brainerd Tuesday and Wednesday

"And a little child shall lead them!"

Dozens of times this phrase has occurred to people who have witnessed the performances of the Winnipeg children who are coming here shortly to represent the Allied armies and help the local committees raise funds for the recruiting service. The reason is that these children have led all the rest of Canada in collecting funds for the now famous Returned Soldiers' Association. Today they are credited with contributing more than thirty thousand dollars to this one fund and their benefit performances have been given for half a dozen of the many worthy causes that draw money from the pocketbooks and tears from the eyes of those who think of the hideousness of the great war.

Maxine Elliott at the Best Tonight.

In the big motion picture production, "Fighting Odds," written by Roi Cooper Megrue and Irvin S. Cobb which is presented as the attraction at the Best theatre tonight and tomorrow, Goldwyn Pictures has brought back to American audiences the international favorite and famed beauty, Maxine Elliott, who is making her first appearance as a screen star.

Maxine Elliott has not been seen on the stage in several years. In recurring dramatic work as a star in motion pictures she has been appropriately equipped with a role which makes demands upon her emotional talents. In emotional possibilities it surpasses anything she has hitherto attempted.

"Fighting Odds" tells a story of big business ventures in the automobile industry. Miss Elliott is seen as the wife of a millionaire manufacturer, a beautiful and loyal woman who, by her wit and her loveliness, brings his powerful enemies to account.

John W. Blake (played by Charles Dalton) plans the ruin of James Copeley and eventually has him sent to prison. Mrs. Copeley (Maxine Elliott) contrives to trip the unscrupulous Blake, who is the head of great financial forces. Through her beauty she wins his confidence under an assumed name, and finally is able to get the evidence necessary to convict him and free her husband.

Allan Dwan, director of "Fighting Odds," has carried out the ideas of the authors with great care, so that the production is an example of excellent photography and artistic scenic display and lays special emphasis on the dramatic element throughout.

Wm. Farnum at Empress Tonight and Tomorrow

William Farnum, the beloved idol of millions of "movie" fans throughout the world, plays a dual role in Charles Dickens' immortal story of the French revolution, "A Tale of Two Cities," at the Empress theatre tonight and tomorrow night. Mr. Farnum's portrayal of the soft-spoken, aristocratic Charles Darnay and the devil-may-care, dissolute English barrister, Sidney Carton, is a screen classic. Never before in the history of photodrama production has a masterpiece been filmed with so notable

The Winnipeg children are real entertainers—not just a collection of infant prodigies. They range in age from seven to fourteen and their program is a first class vaudeville performance. This is evidenced by the fact that their present tour includes some of the largest cities in the country—Chicago being one of them.

Miss Helen Murdoch is one of them—the chief one as she is the director of all the company's activities. She conceived the idea of organizing the company and for two years she has directed its destinies. They represent comedy, songs, dances, clever sketches and patriotic numbers with the finish and precision of long trained professionals. Those in the company include Jackie Winesilver, an eight year old comedian; Lillian Beck, Clissie Farnsworth, Gordon and Freddie Holmes, Gracie Gilmer, Walter Hall, Donald Smith, Benny Loban, Elizabeth Swanson and Helen Hyde.

A cast of players as has been gathered together by Mr. William Fox.

Everyone is familiar with this soul-stirring story of a man's greatest sacrifice for the women he loved, and momentous scenes of the French revolution.

No Bermuda Vegetables.

There will be no fresh Bermuda vegetables this winter. A delegation of Bermuda truck growers who recently called at the shipping board offices in New York in an attempt to secure transportation facilities to their New York market were informed that it was exceedingly doubtful that any vessels would be available for this use.

The Bermuda truck crop, which is ready for market about January 1, has reached the New York market heretofore on British bottoms. These ships have been withdrawn for war purposes.

War Wrecks Nerves.

So terrific is the strain of the present warfare upon the men under fire, writes a correspondent, that nervous and mental disabilities are responsible for one-seventh of all the discharges, while wounds are responsible for one-third of all discharges—or about half as many men disabled through nerve wreckage as by shrapnel.

Descriptive Cognomen.

"What kind of vine is that you have on your wall?"
"I don't know its botanical name. I call it the Bouncer vine because it is always throwing out suckers."

War Topics for Programs Of Club Women Proposed

The educational department of the council of national defense, of which Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt is chairman, is requesting the women's clubs of the country to study the cause of the war. Mrs. Catt asks the women to confine their program this coming year to such topics as:

1. Causes of war.
2. Conditions in Europe preceding the war.
3. Meaning of the war for America and necessity for self-sacrifice.
4. Food conservation, marketing, production, distribution, etc.
5. Emphasize child welfare and other departments in the work of the woman's committee.
6. Study ways and means of better community life, etc.
7. What peace terms should include in order to secure permanent peace.

INFORM MAKES MANY MEN

Apparently Dull and Impossible Requests Quickly Catch on When They Don Khaki Clothes.

"Want to see something funny?" asked a lieutenant of a correspondent. The correspondent did.

"Well, come over here and watch that beauty drill."

The lieutenant led the correspondent over in front of one of the companies.

"Watch that man," he said.

The man was a red-faced, vacant-looking specimen in civilian clothes, who seemed not gifted with mere ordinary intelligence. He could not stand up straight, could not manage his hands and feet, could not learn right face, right about face or left face. Every time the sergeant gave a command the beauty gave him a silly grin and considered that he had done his duty. So the sergeant took him to one side.

"Well, now, we will have a lesson by ourselves. Now watch me."

The sergeant was very patient. For half an hour he tried to drum a little intelligence into his pupil's head, but at the end of that time the man was even more confused than before.

The next day the same sergeant said to the correspondent:

"Want to see something grand?"

The correspondent did. The sergeant pointed to the same man.

"Just look at him," he said proudly.

The private was standing straight, his eyes were bright, his feet were obedient and he looked like a man.

"Wonderful," gasped the correspondent. "What did it?"

"It's the uniform, bless it," said the sergeant. "It makes men out of the most impossible."

"We are all little boys still, aren't we?" mused the correspondent. "I think even I could be a soldier in a uniform. And think of owning a sword!"

Siam Attaches Enemy Firms.

The Siamese government has issued a notification ordering all German and Austrian business firms to be attached and wound up. Among the business houses to be liquidated are three of the leading drug stores in Bangkok, two hotels, two dental offices, one photographic studio, one printing office, one rice milling firm, three general import houses, one rice mill engineering office and one undertaker's establishment.

The importance of Germany's trade interest in Siam, notes a correspondent, may be judged from the fact that the imports from that country into Siam through the port of Bangkok amounted to $2,097,236 in the fiscal year ended March 31, 1913, and to $2,458,889 in 1914, while exports of native products from Siam to Germany were valued at $2,110,085 and $2,747,236 during the respective periods.

A large share of the shipping was also under German control, so that out of the total number of 914 ships of all nationalities that entered the port of Bangkok during 1914 those of German registry numbered 261 vessels. At the time of Siam's declaration of war on July 22, 1917, the German vessels in the Bangkok harbor consisted of nine steamships, of 11,766 tons; five tugboats, of 1,317 tons; two tugs, of 55 tons; seven barges and two large coal hulks.

Soldier Discharged; To Mary Countess Camp MacArthur, Waco, Tex., Nov. 10.—Private Victor A. Martin, Ann Arbor, Mich., of the 125th Infantry stationed here, has received his discharge on account of physical disability and will leave for Los Angeles to wed Countess Adrienne de Coriche, a noted French beauty and dancer. Countess de Coriche was a dancing partner to Pavlova, the Russian dancer. She is a first cousin to Count Boni de Castellane. Martin and his future bride met at Soissons, France.

POTATO MARKET WEAKER

(Prepared by the Markets Division of the State Food Committee for the Public Safety Commission.)

The week shows a general weakening of a slight nature on the potato market, partly due to heavier offerings caused by the mild weather and a falling off in the carlot demands. Owing to the car shortage and the inability to fill orders with any degree of promptness the northwest has lost a large proportion of its fall business, other growing sections evidently getting the order, and a sharp turn to colder weather will give a brace to the demand. A good movement of potatoes is still possible if cars are available.

Love—Law—Life, What is It?

(LARS ERICSSON.)

To the Editor of Brainerd Dispatch—
I am glad to find that so many are interested in the articles appearing in your paper on scientific, philosophical and religious subjects. After all is said and done, we will find that all these subjects are co-related in such a way that to exclude any would be fatal to all.

The progress of human life depends upon the development of individual minds, and this development must take place in order to understand the mysteries of nature and life. Every scholar knows by experience, that the best way of learning is to know in to try and formulate our ideas and thoughts in words and sentences for the criticism of others who are trying to do the same thing. I congratulate the editor of The Dispatch, who feels at liberty to print articles of this kind, even if they are childish and products of immature minds.

Henry Clark quotes the Bible: "God is Love." But, what is Love? Is it not Law, Order, Harmony? In a universal sense we call it Law, Order, Harmony, Gravitation, Chemical affinity, Attraction. In social life we call it Friendship, Sympathy, and in a peculiar individual life we call it Love. The principle is the same in all the kingdoms of nature. The technical terms for this principle is: "That Principle in Nature which impels every Entity to Seek Vibratory Correspondence With Another Like Entity of Opposite Polarity." It is through the operation of this principle that everything grows and develops from lower to higher forms. It is through a recognition and a true application of this principle that we may expect to see a redeemed world, a society, a brotherhood, where peace and harmony will reign forever.

Brother Clark, we care for the past because by it we draw needed object lessons for the present, and we care for the future because it is our destination, and because our hopes and our aspirations for a more glorious future will inspire us to do justice and live better lives now. Our conduct determines our character, and our character our destiny.

It is very important to know the mysteries of nature and life, because only thus can we put ourselves, individually and collectively, in that true relationship which alone can insure true happiness in this world as well as in the next. Happiness is after all, the great and natural desire of all human souls. The great problem is, therefore, a knowledge of the conditions upon which happiness depends. These conditions are found in nature. They are found in a true harmonic relationship, which can never be established until we are ready to unite science and religion in one. Religion must become scientific and science religious before we know what we are at.

Brother, denominations are not of the "devil." Think it over again and you will come to see how natural and how necessary they are under a condition of partial knowledge, immature minds, and under the facts of growth and development. It would be just as wise to say that the different classes in the schools are of the devil. You cannot expect all men to be equally developed morally and intellectually. Denominations are evidence of life, growth and development, while ONE denomination in perfect harmony would either be an evidence of death and stagnation, or of completion and perfection. I have not yet met the man who even thought that he was perfect mentally and morally.

As far as known, the human race is in a better condition now than it ever was in the past, and still chaos and confusion prevail. We are still in ignorance, mental and moral darkness. But, the word is spoken: "Let there be light," and light there will be through the assistance of each other. Mental light is knowledge. Let no one, therefore, take the responsibility of discouraging anyone from digging for the hidden mysteries. It is sad but true, that professional pride is one of the great hindrances. During my 35 years of earnest and active work as a church member, I have met only one preacher who ever tried to encourage me in my search for truth. Selfish pride hinders the progress of science in all its branches. That is the reason why all seers in all ages have said, that the first door we must pass through before we can attain to a higher knowledge and wisdom, is the door of Humility. Selfish pride blinds the vision, or at least shortens it, and the individual remains in his ignorance, or cannot go any further in knowledge.

Mr. Stevens quotes Mary Baker Eddy: "There is no life, truth, intelligence or substance in matter, all is infinite mind and its infinite manifestations, for God is all-in-all."

This seems to me to be a very peculiar statement. As far as I understand English, it is full of contradictions. Let us see. "There is no life, truth, intelligence or substance in matter." This admits matter as a fact in nature, but it is dead. What she means by the word substance here I cannot know. To me it would appear to mean that matter is nothing, and that sounds ridiculous. Modern science contradicts the statement that matter is dead. The particles of all matter is in a state of vibration or motion, hence it must be some kind of life. But—"all is infinite mind," says Eddy. This statement contradicts the first statement, because Mind is both life and intelligence. If all is Mind, matter is Mind also, provided that there is any such thing as matter, and there must be as even Mrs. Eddy admits it in her statement, and then we all handle it every day. "All is infinite manifestations of mind" for "God is all in all." Hence, everything has life as mind is in matter. Yes, matter is alive. Illustration: As long as my soul occupies my physical body so long is my physical body alive and manifests the character of my soul.

"He drew a circle
That shut me out—
Herein, rebel, a thing to flout,
But love and I
Had the wit to win.
We drew a circle,
That took him in."
—Edwin Markham.

Where American Troops Were Killed

From the Berlin account of the action against American troops on the French frontier it is believed it took place at the town of Parroy where the battle line crosses the Rhine-Marne Canal. Here it was that several days previous to the engagement which resulted in the death of three Americans and the wounding of more, the Germans captured several prisoners. This point is south-east of the Verdun battlefield, two miles from the German boundary. It was a quiet section of the line where American troops were being given their final training for war.

U. S. WAR BREAD COMING INTO USE

December 10 All Bakeries Will Be Opened Under License From Government.

LOWER COST EXPECTED

Prices Not To Be Fixed, But Competition And Standardization Are Expected To Force Prices Down.

Washington, Nov. 12.—President Wilson will issue a proclamation at once placing all bakeries under license December 10 and subjecting the mto food administration rules prescribing ingredients and weights of loaves. This will standardize bread and is expected to lower its price.

Prices will not be fixed, but with the standardization it is expected that competition and simplification of distribution will force down prices for pound loaves to 7 or 8 cents.

Fancy breads will be eliminated and the many sizes now produced will be reduced to four with standard ingredients. The weights will be one pound one and a half, two and four pounds. Loaves will have a crease in the middle to permit their sale in halves.

In baking only three pounds of sugar will be allowed for a barrel of flour instead of an average of six pounds now used, and two pounds of vegetable oil shortening must be used instead of six pounds of lard or oil. The food administration expects to save 100,000,000 pounds of sugar and the same amount of lard in this way.

Skimmed Milk Considered. Bakers may use only skimmed milk for bread, and rolls will be permitted only if made in standard sizes and of regulation bread dough.

Through the cooperation of the baking industry and with the backing of the licensing system, Food Administrator Hoover hopes to work reforms in the present method of distribution, from wholesale bakeries to retailers, and from retailers to consumers. He will urge grocers to buy regular quantities, limiting their purchases to a single bakery instead of buying from four or five, and to make lower charges to customers who pay cash and carry their goods home. On the "cash and carry" basis, he says, bread can be sold at a profit of 1 cent a pound. An attempt will be made to persuade wholesale bakeries to sell direct to customers.

New Estimates of Old Writers.

New estimates of the writers of the past generation are constantly being made and if they were generally accepted a good many people who liked the works of these writers would wonder how it happened that their judgment was so uniformly wrong. One critic rules George Eliot out of the list not only of the great, but of the near great. Thackeray and Dickens are spoken of with toleration, but with much questioning of their methods and their real ability; Tennyson is set aside as a second-rate poet by the new school of verse makers, and so the iconoclasm goes on. The latest victim of attack is Flaubert. In the North American Review Willard Huntington Wright not only declines to regard the author of "Madame Bovary" as a transcendent genius, but refuses to accord to him a place in the front rank of modern literary artists. He admits that he is a master of style, but insists that style, however perfect, is not of chief artistic significance, but is only of secondary importance when compared with the "internal architecture of art." This "poised inner structure" is a quality he fails to find in any of Flaubert's work. It is not quite clear what he means by this internal architecture, but his critique will be found of interest by readers of Flaubert.

RUSS REVOLT IS TOTTERING

Kerensky With Army Of 200,000 Followers May Soon Be In Power Again.

REBELS ARE DEFEATED

Beaten In Moscow And Tsarko-Selo They Retreat In Disorderly Mob Toward Petrograd.

Petrograd, Nov. 12.—A decree has been issued by the congress of Soldiers' and Workmen's delegates abolishing the rights of land owners and handing over all estates forthwith to agricultural committees.

The decree provides that all products of the subsoil, including coal, petroleum and minerals, are the property henceforth of the state. The land of small owners is not to be confiscated. Each citizen has the right to own as much land as he himself cultivates, without hiring labor.

Revolt Is Weakening.

London, Nov. 12.—Apparently the Bolsheviks in Petrograd are nearing their end and Premier Kerensky may soon again be in power. Late advices from Petrograd are to the effect that the revolutionists have been defeated in Moscow and at Tsarko-Selo, and from the latter town, which is 15 miles from Petrograd, are retreating a disorderly mob toward the capital. In Petrograd, street fighting has taken place, with the Cossacks and other loyalists having the better of the Bolsheviks.

Big Battle Expected.

Kerensky with 200,000 men is on his way from Gatchina to reinforce the loyalists. To stay his progress, however, the rails of the Petrograd-Gatchina railway have been torn up and large forces of the Bolsheviks are said to have gone out to give battle.

To add to the troubles of the Kerensky government, a state of war has been proclaimed in Finland and the governor general dismissed, his place having been taken by a sailor. The Diet has voted to elect a state directorate which will have supreme power in the province.

Finland Declares War.

Helsingfors, Finland, Nov. 12.—A state of war has been declared in Finland. The provisional soldiers committee has appointed a sailor named Schjecks as commissary of Finland in place of Governor-General Nekrasoff.

The Diet is in session and Russian representation in it has been completely ignored. It was voted to elect a state directorate with supreme powers. Prof. von Wendt, a delegate of the Diet, has telegraphed President Wilson, that owing to the poor harvest, the country faces starvation unless food can be obtained in the United States.

RUINED CITIES OF FRANCE

Many of Them Have Taken on Character of Permanency, So Endless Does War Seem to People.

There is a new kind of city on earth today, a strange, nightmare kind of a city that has taken on for the people of northern France almost a character of permanency, so endless is this war. People have lived through so much since August, 1914, that they seem to themselves to have been always at war, and, looking forward, they see nothing but long years of warfare. The ruined cities such as Arras have become a part of the natural order of things, and the strange life in them has come to seem a natural sort of life. Towns like this are found by the score where the slow pressure of the allies is forcing the Prussian back, says a war correspondent.

They are the towns that have been bombarded and bombarded again, taken and retaken, assaulted and captured, and cannonaded by those who held them the day before, until it is a marvel that one day remains on another. They are full of ruined houses and shattered quarters of all degrees of destruction, and stranger than all they have blocks and sections that by some miracle escaped.

Here is a row of houses that might be in the far South, 200 miles from the battle front. The shutters are up and the streets are deserted, as though the people were late in rising. Here is a public square pitted with shellholes one side fronted by a row of buildings whole save for broken windows, the other bounded only by shapeless masses of brick and stone. Here and there a slow smoke curls upward from some gnawing fire. A hundred yards away there may be a stubborn family still occupying its old home, but no body puts out the fire. The civilians are too hopeless and the soldiers are too busy.

And here is a house with the front sliced off by a shell and the rooms still all in order—a strange spectacle—with beds and bureaus and chairs and tables all in order, as though some enterprising furniture dealer had undertaken a new and ambitious form of window display. For the most part the noblest buildings, the churches and public halls and the towered relics of the Gothic period are gone—they furnish too easy a mark for the range-finder. And ever and again a dull crash tells of another shell carrying on the barbarous work

Do Something Better Than the Other Fellow---and ADVERTISE

Advertising cannot accomplish the impossible any more than barren ground can yield rich crop.

But how advertising does make things hum when the product and proposition are right, the men and methods above board, when there's an honest purpose and earnest effort from bundle boy to general manager to serve efficiency, to deal honestly, to sell good goods, to price fairly.

Oil up the machinery of your business, imbue your organization with the spirit of true service, make your business worthy of the good will, the confidence, the patronage of the people.

In this fertile field then sow the seed of advertising and it will bring forth abundant crops in increased business and augmented prestige.

Your store news in the Dispatch will be read in practically every home in Brainerd and vicinity every evening.

HEN MANURE VERY VALUABLE

Mixed With Ground Rock and Kainite It Makes One of Best Fertilizers for Farm Use.

By mixing from 50 to 60 pounds of the ground rock with each barrel of hen manure and adding 40 or 50 pounds of kainite as a source of potash, it makes one of the best and most highly concentrated manures available for the lawn, garden and fruit orchard. In addition to its manual value, it possesses the further advantage of being free from weed seeds. As a fertilizer for corn this mixture is unequalled, and excellent results have been obtained by using a small amount in the hill covering it with dirt before planting the corn.

Down at Winona he stood in a

JOHN CHARLES HESSEL

Portland Oregonian Prints Picture and Obituary of Former Brainerd Man Passed Away

A clipping from the Portland Oregonian given the Dispatch by J. K.
Pearce gives the obituary and picture of John Charles Hessel, former Brainerd man who died at Gresham, Ore.

It states that Mr. Hessel, for the past nine years a resident of Gresham, died at his home in October after a brief illness.

"Mr. Hessel was born in Boxheim, near Criesnach, Germany, July 20, 1848, and came to this country when a young man. He went into the farm implement business soon after his arrival at Waseca, Minn. He conducted the same kind of business at Gresham. In 1882 he was married to Mrs. Alida Mix. His widow and four children survive. Mr. Hessel was a member of the Odd Fellows for 35 years."

BRAINERD'S ODDEST
STORIES OF TODAY

Two prominent business men of Brainerd, so it is related to the Odd Stories man, asked two Brainerd girls to have soda and when the girls had at length decided on the flavors, one man suddenly excused himself and the other said he had to meet a friend, and the girls never did get the sodas.

A Brainerd man driving his Ford through the fog the other night missed the crossing at Pequot and very comfortably motored down the track over the ties. He arrived at the station before he became aware he was off the county road and on the M. & I. road. Which is either great praise for the riding qualities of the M. & I. or a hint that Crow Wing rutty roads offer as many bumps to the mile as a tie pass.

A lady whose husband was a great lodge man was told of the difficulties of making train connections at Staples for Brainerd when her liege lord attended a funeral down there and of the necessity of taking the train to Little Falls in order to get back to Brainerd. She said her husband was always anxious to get back home and didn't care if he had to go way out of his road to get back to his own freside.

DISTRICT COURT
INDICTMENTS GIVEN

In district court these additional indictments were made public when the men were arraigned:

John Davis of Garrison, was arraigned on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor without a license, one pint whiskey, to Perry Person.
Steve Kovotovich, Wassa Kovoto-vich and John Davis were arraigned on the charge of keeping an unlicensed drinking place at Garrison on July 4, 1917.

Wassa Kovotovich of Garrison was arraigned on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor without a license, 24 bottles of beer to Henry Person and Hilmer Person.
George Shanks, charged with grand larceny in the second degree, pleaded not guilty. The offense was taking a Ford valued at $325 from W. V. Turcotte.

Otto Bjorklund, charged with
grand larceny in the second degree, pleaded not guilty. The indictment charged him with taking four automobile casings, four inner tubes, four spark plugs, top of automobile and radiator and hood, property being valued at $100.

Jacob Borken pleaded not guilty when arraigned. He is charged with criminally receiving stolen property, 550 pounds of brass of the value of $82.50, property of the Northern Pacific railway company, on or about September 14, 1917.

Lawrence Ravnikar and Dan Evelich were charged with grand larceny in the second degree, that they stole a cow from Joe Beblch valued at $100 at Ironton, November 4, 1917. Both were arraigned and bonds placed at $500 each.

Eli Panovich of Ironton, charged with keeping an unlicensed drinking place, was arraigned and bonds placed at $150.

Nels Johnson of Crow Wing township was arraigned on the charge of selling intoxicating liquors without a license, selling a quart of whiskey and quart of beer to N. Anderson October 9.

Another indictment against Nels Johnson on a similar charge states he sold a quart of whiskey and quart of beer to J. Markert on October 9.

Joe Caron was arraigned on the charge of selling intoxicating liquor without a license, selling a quart of whiskey to J. Markert on October 7.

A second indictment charges Caron with selling a pint of whiskey to J.
Markert October 9.

Sawson & Swanson appeared as attorneys for Shanks, Bjorklund and Ravnikar.

who attended the same.

Matters of importance to the local work are to come up and plans for the future discussed. The local Red Cross work is being conducted along practical lines and with such success as to receive commendation from headquarters. Money must be raised to continue the work and all who are interested are urged to place before the directors any plans or suggestions whereby the available fund may be added to.

CLOSED FIRST YEAR PASTORATE

Rev. William Lloyd Crist Took Charge of Peoples Congregational Church Year Ago

HAS BUILT UP CONGREGATION

Had Similar Experience With Two
Other Churches and Did Same Successful Work

Rev. William Lloyd Crist closed the first year of his pastorate with the Peoples Congregational church on Sunday last. When Rev. Crist took charge of the Peoples church a year ago, he found it in a very much rundown condition, owing to not having a resident pastor for a long time. A few of the faithful ones had held the church together, hoping and praying for better times in the future. Although the outlook was depressing, Mr. Crist did not seem to be discouraged, for he had had previous experience in restoring two such churches, and he went to work with a will. There were pessimists who said that the "Peoples church was dead and should be buried," but they have discovered that they have to sing a new song now, and that it is very much alive, and is here to stay.

During the year nineteen persons have united with the church, there have been thirty baptisms, the Sabbath school has nearly doubled and the church has the enviable record of having the largest Cradle Roll in the state, outside of the three large cities, there being one hundred and thirty-four names on the roll. There is not a cent of indebtedness in any department of the church work. At the state convention of Congregational churches, recently held at St.
Paul, thirty of the two hundred and twenty-nine churches in the state attained to standard required to be placed upon the honor roll, the Peoples church being one of this number.

The church voted unanimously at a special business meeting last night that Rev. Crist remain with them another year.

American Physicians
Will Try to Clean Up
Civilian Population

By J. W. PEGLER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE AMERICAN EXPED-ITIONARY ARMY, FRANCE, Oct. 27.
(By Mail)—American doctors this winter will try to clean up the civilian population of the American Zone. Their success in the job depends largely upon the tactful handling of a delicate situation.

During three years of war the civilian doctors of most of France have been with the armies. In their absence from the civil districts many cases of disease have run either unchecked or with inadequate attention. Allments have spread to many victims who in ordinary times would not have contracted them.

With American troops moving into these dozens of tiny, isolated farming towns it became necessary to clean up the civilian population as a protection for our troops. In pursue of the program decided upon, our doctors have opened dispensaries where civilians are given free treatment for whatever ails them.

If the French villagers were to think themselves the objects of charity or of a mechanical clean-up campaign, scores of sufferers would never apply for treatment. It is by tactful inquiry among the population that our people expect to find out who is suffering and by diplomatic handling of the situation they hope to encourage the people to come around and apply for treatment.

ATTENTION

Captains and Lieutenants of Y. M.

night at 8 P. M. at Chamber of Commerce to receive instructions.
By Chairman.

Keep Hands Off Wounds.

A wound should never be touched with the bare hands. It is better to cover it up just as it is rather than to run the risk of introducing another colony of perhaps even more dangerous germs. If possible, however, the wound should be washed out with an antiseptic solution. If water is to be used, it should have been boiled at least ten minutes, as simply bringing it to the boiling point will not kill the germs.

Germany Colonizing
Alsace and Lorraine

BY HENRY WOOD.

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
With the French Armies, Oct. 27.
(By Mail)—Secret information from Alsace and Lorraine reaches the French military authorities daily, relative to the steps now being taken there by the Germans, to render it certain that if a plebiscite were held to decide whether the two provinces preferred to belong to France or Germany, the result would be in favor of the latter.

Although at the time Germany an-nexed Alsace and Lorraine, she declined absolutely to allow the question to be submitted to a plebiscite, she now appears very anxious to have the ultimate disposition of the two provinces settled in that manner. In the meantime active steps are being taken to see that Alsace and Lorraine are inhabited, at least at the time of the proposed plebiscite, by a German majority.

According to the information reaching France, a steady colonization has now been going on for some time past. German families are being moved into the two provinces and settled there until the ultimate fate of Alsace and Lorraine is disposed of the peace conference.

Germany is also pushing to a quick completion the liquidation of all the great manufactures and other industries owned by French capital or by people of known French proclivities. Many of these properties are valued at millions of dollars. They are being sold to German shareholders.

World Is Changing.

The world is changing, and humanity has less patience with difficult people. Cranky workers are not given preference even when they are distinguished by unusual skill. Women who aspire to popularity know that they must bury all annoyance at whatever does not please them in the treatment accorded them. They cannot afford to voice any sensitive feeling or take any step toward retaliation. The lesson may be hard, but it is decidedly wholesome, and the pity of it is that so few women care to take it.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

ALL SUBJECT TO WAR DUTY

Those Men Not On Fighting Line To Be Used In Factory And Field.

WILSON ISSUES CALL

Paves Way For Second Draft In February By Summons To All Men Under Newly Revised Plans.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The new machinery for the carrying out of the selective draft bill has been formally put into operation by President Wilson with the foreword he has written to the regulations under which the second call will be made.

The regulations themselves and the questionnaire, which more than 9,000,000 registrants will be required to fill out, are being forwarded to local boards, but have not yet been made public.

This reorganization makes every man subject to war duty, if not in France, at least in the fields and factories.

War department officials estimate that the whole process can be completed within 60 days. This means that no second call will be made upon the draft forces before the middle of next February, as the period of classification will not begin until December 15.

The President describes the new plan of dividing all registered men not already mobilized into five classes, subject to military service by classes, as being intended to produce "a more perfect organization of our man-power."

Efficiency Is Gratifying.

The President's foreword follows: "The task of selecting and mobilizing the first contingent of the National army is nearing completion. The expedition and accuracy of its accomplishment were a most gratifying demonstration of the efficiency of our democratic institutions. The swiftness with which the machinery for its execution had to be assembled, however, left room for adjustment and improvement. New regulations putting these improvements into effect are, therefore, published. There is no change in the essential obligation of men subject to selection. The first draft must stand unaffected by the provisions of the new regulations. They can be given no retroactive effect.

"The time has come for a mere perfect organization of our man-power. The selective principle must be carried to its logical conclusion. We must make a complete inventory of the qualifications of all registrants in order to determine as to each man not already selected for duty with the colors, the place in the military, industrial or agricultural ranks of the nation in which his experience and training can best be made to serve the common good. This project involves an inquiry by the selection boards into the domestic, industrial and educational qualifications of nearly 10,000,000 men. Members of these boards have rendered a conspicuous service. The work was done without regard to personal convenience and under a pressure of immediate necessity which imposed great sacrifices.

Not One-Tenth Done.

"Yet the services of men trained by the experience of the first draft must of necessity be retained and the selection boards must provide the directing mechanism for the new classification. The thing they have done is of scarcely one-tenth the magnitude of the thing that remains to be done. It is of great importance both to military and to our economic interests that the classification be carried swiftly and accurately to a conclusion. An estimate of the time necessary for the work leads to the conclusion that it can be accomplished in 60 days, but only if this great marshalling of our resources of men is regarded by all as a national war undertaking of such significance as to challenge the attention and compel the assistance of every American.

"I call upon all citizens, therefore, to assist local and district boards by proffering such service and such material conveniences as they can offer and by appearing before the boards, either upon summons or upon their own initiative, to give such information as will be useful in classifying registrants. I urge men of the legal profession to offer themselves as associate members of the legal advisory boards to be provided in each community for the purpose of advising registrants of their rights and obligations and of assisting them in the

Mrs. Wilson "Adopts" Soldiers.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Robert Lansing "adopted" soldiers by subscribing $30 and $6, respectively, to the war camp recreation fund. Mrs. Wilson will be credited with having "adopted" ten soldiers and Mrs. Lansing two. President Wilson also subscribed to the fund, but the amount was not made public. The campaign for the $3,750,000 fund closed, but reports have not been received from all parts of the country.

U. S. ASKS AGREEMENT

Wants Pact With Germany For Care of Captives.

Negotiations Opened To Insure Good Treatment of Prisoners On Both Sides.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Negotiations with Germany have been opened by the United States for an agreement to govern the treatment of prisoners of war taken by either nation.

This is being done with the hope of procuring the best possible conditions for Americans taken prisoner on the battlefield, and to show Germany how well German prisoners in the United States are being treated.

Already, through the Red Cross at Geneva, the United States has begun forwarding food and other necessities to Americans held in Germany, of whom there are more than 100.

It is realized that as the American troops increase in numbers on the battlefield, more prisoners are bound to find their way to the German prison camps.

A nation pinched for food for itself probably will feed its enemy prisoners last.

preparation of their answer to the questions which all men subject to the draft are required to submit.

"I ask the doctors of the country to identify themselves with the medical advisory boards which are to be constituted in the various districts throughout the United States for the purpose of making a systematic physical examination of the registrants. It is important also that police officials of every grade and class should be informed of their duty under the selective service law and regulations, to search for persons who do not respond promptly and to serve the summons of local and district boards. Newspapers can be of very great assistance in giving wide publicity to the requirements of the law and regulations and to the numbers and names of those who are called to present themselves to their local boards from day to day. Finally, I ask that during the time hereafter to be specified as marking the 60-day period of the classification all citizens give attention to the task in hand in order that the process may proceed to a conclusion with swiftness and yet with even and considerate justice to all."

QUEEN LILI'UOKALANI DIES

Was Eighth And Last Ruler of Hawaii.

Honolulu, T. H., Nov. 12.—Queen Lili'ukalani of Hawaii, whose death has been expected for several days, has passed away.

The queen had been in bad health for many months. A week ago she began to fall rapidly and last Thursday physicians announced that the end was near.

The queen's death was announced by the tolling of bells and the half-masting of flags. Her old subjects among the natives, including chiefs of the old regime, immediately gathered together to mourn.

War Contract Mill Destroyed.

Dodgeville, Wis., Nov. 12.—The big mill belonging to the Lucky Five zinc and lead mine here was destroyed by fire with a loss of $20,000. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin as there were explosions heard more than half a mile away before the flames broke out. No arrests have been made. The material from the mill is being used in the manufacture of munitions.

Spy Suspect and Woman Held.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 12.—Federal Agent DeWoody is holding a man he says is a German spy and a woman companion. They were taken into custody here. Documents from German officials were found on the man. DeWoody said the man came here from Dayton and got work at a large ship building plant here through use of a fictitious workman's identification tag. DeWoody said the man gave the name of Philip Weber and admitted he used that of P. Wilson.

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR COMMISSIONS

GOVERNMENT DECIDES TO OPEN THIRD OFFICERS TRAINING CAMP IN JANUARY.

WILL ADMIT TWO PER CENT

Opportunity for Advancement Thus Is Given to the Men of the Selective Service—Remarkable Results of Intensive Drill and Study.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Enlisted men of the regular army and the National Guard and selective service men of the National army are to be given an opportunity this winter to earn commissions by undergoing instruction at another officers' training camp, which the government has decided to establish early in January.

It was not many years ago that some high-ranking army officers recommended that the course at West Point be extended one year, because they held that four years' instruction, even at a school as rigid in its discipline and teaching as the military academy, was not enough in which to train an officer for the army.

It may be that as a result of the experience of this war the minds of some of the army officers will be changed concerning the time necessary to make men fit for commissions. Of course it is recognized that the necessities of the case have made it urgent that officers should be trained quickly, but from the reports which come to the war department from all over the country it appears that the young men who have been commissioned after three months at school in the field are something more than fairly fit to exercise junior commands.

Already the commanding general of each regular army, National Guard and National army division has told the enlisted men of his command that the school for officers is to be opened and that every noncommissioned officer and private can apply for admission. It is estimated that 10 per cent of the enlisted strength of the various organizations will be selected for examination for entrance to the camps and that from this 10 per cent a little less than 2 per cent will be chosen for actual service at the schools of instruction.

Only the Best to Be Taken.

It is not believed, however, that fully 10 per cent of all the organizations will apply for permission to undertake the training. If the entire number should apply and should be successful in the course, the army probably would be overtopped with officers. Therefore it is that only 2 per cent, comprising the most likely percentage of the 10 per cent, will be permitted to enter the camps.

The understanding is that at the training camps the course will be conducted along semicompetitive lines. Not all the men who enter, of course, can graduate, but they will lose nothing by the educational experience, for those who do not get commissions probably will be given noncommissioned rank with the increase of pay which such rank commands.

Out of the colleges and military schools of the country 2,500 young men are to be taken into the officers' training camps. They will drill and study side by side with the men from the ranks of the three services. It is apparently the intention of Uncle Sam to have enough men to officer an army much larger than that which at the present day is under orders.

Gives Drafted Men a Chance.

The parents and the friends of many young men who have been selected for service and have entered the National army feared that promotion would be denied even the deserving ones in the ranks of those chosen by draft. The war department knew that the feeling existed in the country that the men who volunteered for the regulars or the National Guard would be much more certain of promotion than the men who entered the service through the draft. The department acted to allay the fear.

In attendance at the first two officers' training camps there were hundreds of men who never before had shouldered a rifle or marched in ranks. They found that if they were quick to adapt themselves to conditions, their lack of military training and knowledge was no great handicap. There are hundreds and even thousands of young officers in the reserve corps today who six months ago did not know the right flank from the left, nor the front rank from the rear. Intensive training for three months, as army officers put it, seems to have turned the trick.

Some persons may think that it is nothing but a wild use of words to suggest that it is possible that before this war ends some of the highest ranking officers in the service, officers who will be in the public eye as great commanders, will be men who entered the service through the draft and who before entering it never had shouldered a rifle. Such things often have happened in the history of the wars of the world, and history has a habit of repeating itself.

A Good Reason.

"You ought to husband that corn," said the food conservist, as the farmer scattered it to the chickens.

"I do husband it," replied the farmer. "Don't you see it's henpecked?"

AMERICAN BRAVERY KNOWS NO SECTION

EVERY PART OF THE UNION IS FINELY REPRESENTED IN THE ARMY AND NAVY.

MEN OF SOUTH CONSPICUOUS

Chance Has Given Some of Them Opportunity to See First Service in This Great War as High Ranking Officers.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—The first of Uncle Sam's sailor boys to be killed in this war while actually serving on a man-of-war was Osmond K. Ingram, a native of Alabama, an entrant into the service from that state. Some one semi-jocously has said that this is an Alabama war.

It simply has happened that three high ranking officers of the United States army are from the state of Alabama. One of them is Maj. Gen. William C. Gorgas, who is the surgeon general of the United States armies; the second is Maj. Gen. William L. Sibert, commanding Uncle Sam's first division in the field in France, and the third is Maj. Gen. Frank McIntyre, acting at present as chief military censor for the government with the promise soon of active field service in France. General McIntyre is also chief of the bureau of insular affairs.

Every part of the Union is finely represented in the armed forces of the United States. The same spirit animates officers from whatever part of the country they come. It has been an accident of the service more than anything else, probably, which has given some Southern officers the opportunity to see first service and to "carry through," but the fact remains.

The adjutant general of the United States army, Maj. Gen. Henry P. McCain, whose work perhaps at present is the most burdensome of all the staff services, is a Mississippian. Gorgas, Sibert, McIntyre and McCain rose in the service to the point where chief commands were certain to be their lot when war broke out, under Republican administrations. There has been no politics or sectionalism in the promotion of these men, nor in their selection for high service. It was a Republican president who sent Gorgas and Sibert to Panama, where they made their great fame, and it was a Republican president also who put McIntyre where he is.

Good Work by Southerners.

Let a Northerner write something in appreciation of the service of the men from the South. Equally with the men from the North, West and East, their hearts seem to be in this fight. As has been said, the first sailor killed in this conflict while actually serving on an American man-of-war was a Southerner. In the Spanish war the only American navy officer who lost his life in battle also was a Southerner, Ensign Worth Bagley. Bagley, by the way, was a brother-in-law of Josephus Daniels, now secretary of the navy.

In the Spanish war and in the insurrection in the Philippines which followed it the list of officers killed and wounded included a large share of Southern names. It was Capt. Marion B. Saffold, an Alabamian and a West Pointer, who was killed while leading a detachment of his regiment in the charge at the battle of Novoceta, Philippine Islands.

It was Victor Blue, now a captain in the navy, a North Carolinian, who dared the fate that overtook Nathan Hale of Connecticut in the Revolutionary war by traversing with a single companion the island of Porto Rico, subsequently to report to the American authorities on the disposition of the Spanish defenses in the island.

It was Andrew S. Rowan, a Virginian and a West Pointer, who dared death in a similar way by piercing to the heart of Cuba, carrying "the message to Garcia" before any other American soldier had set foot on the island's soil.

Same Spirit in All Sections.

Brig. Gen. George B. Duncan, the first American regular to be given a Cross of War by the French government for conspicuous courage in the field, is a Kentuckian. A Southern captain of regulars, because of his record, was picked by a general staff composed largely of Northerners to command a regiment of National Guardsmen in the field in France. His name is William P. Screws and he is now on duty with the Rainbow division on Long Island, which "in good time and soon" probably will sail for France.

No one must understand from what is said in Washington concerning the willingness of the Southern soldiers to do their duty and something more, that the same spirit does not animate the Northern officers. What is true of one is true of the other, but it is something to be able as a Northerner to pay a tribute to the unmistakable spirit of loyalty to service and loyalty to country which is being shown daily by the men of the South who are following the flag on land and on sea.

When the official record of heroic deeds of individual soldiers and sailors of the United States is read it is found that heroism knows no section. The medals of honor which have been granted by congress for conspicuous personal gallantry in the field have gone about equally, in proportion to numbers, to North, South, East and West. American heroism knows no state, country, city, township or hamlet. It abides in all.

The roof is the last to go on your building; but the selection of an efficient and economical roof is of first importance. If you will use on your building you will get the most efficient roof, and will cut down the cost of the roof materially.

CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is economical to buy, inexpensive to lay, and it costs practically nothing to maintain. It is watertight, fire retardant, clean, sanitary, and gives the utmost roofing service over a period of years. CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to thickness (1, 2 or 3 ply).

The quality and merit of CERTAIN-TEED have made it the preferable type of roofing for office buildings, hotels, factories, stores, warehouses, garages, farm buildings, etc. If you are building it will be to your interest to investigate CERTAIN-TEED.

There are many roll roofings, but only one CERTAIN-TEED. As it costs no more to lay a CERTAIN-TEED Roof than it does to lay a poor roof, it will pay to get the best, and save on renewals and upkeep. You can't tell the quality of roll roofing by its appearance, or by feeling of it; your only safety is in the label. Be sure it is CERTAIN-TEED.

Certain-teed Slate-Surfaced Asphalt Shingles are supplanting wood and slate shingles for residences. They cost less, are just as good looking, wear better, won't fall off, buckle or split. They are fire retardant, and do not have to be painted or stained.

Certain-teed Paints and Varnishes are made of the best quality materials and mixed by modern machinery to insure uniformity. Made for all uses and in all colors and sizes. Any dealer can get them for you. With paint and varnish, as with roofing, the name CERTAIN-TEED is a guarantee of quality and satisfaction.
